

Grading Rubric For Case Brief #3

Elements	Not Attempted	Does not Meet Expectations	Meets Expectations	Exceeds Expectations
Case Name Citation and Procedural History (6 points)	Little to no evidence of proper citation of the case and procedural history	Evident, but the citations are incorrect as to form, spelling, numeric correctness, or the essential procedural history is incomplete	Addresses all parts of the citation and procedural history, but is not entirely clear or straightforward	Citations and procedural history are correct and adequately address all parts clearly and in chronological sequence
Length Requirement (4 points)	Little to no evidence of a case brief	Too short	On the short side and/or it meets the length requirement only because it contains “fluff”	Falls within the length requirement without going over and does not contain “fluff”
Mechanics of Writing (20 points)	Little to no evidence of proper writing mechanics	Needs improvement with respect to grammar, citations, spelling and/or style	Generally free from grammar, citations, spelling and/or style errors, but needs some improvement	Free from grammar, citations, spelling and/or style errors
Understanding (45 Points)	Exhibits a complete lack of understand of the material	Exhibits little understanding of the material, but needs improvement	Exhibits sufficient understanding of the material, but some improvement needed	Exhibits excellent understanding of the material